Ex-Gov. Budd of Ohio Acts as Godfather to the Great Editor's Grand Aspiration.

Columbus, O., Feb. 12.-A presidental boom in behalf of William R. Hearst, and a bitter attack on alleged erters from the Democratic party by Willam J. Bryan, were the dominting notes at the barbecue given tonight by the Jefferson-Jackson-Lincoln eague, organized a year ago by former Congressman John J. Lentz and others. Twelve hundred men and women were resent. The program of toasts fol-

English Press Very Much Dissatisfied Over Venezuelan Situation.

New York, Feb. 13.-The newspapers here, says the Tribune's correspondent in London, are very much dissatisfied because Germany is to receive $340,000 from Venezuela and England only $27,-Germany, it is admitted, has every reason to chuckle. The Daily Mail says the net result of the alliance is that the relations of England and the United States have been seriously embarrased at a time when the mutual sentiment is unusually friendly, and when American opinion was beginning to favor the idea of a British alliance; that to the continent, this country has been ex-hibited as still in German leading strings to the injury of British interests outside of America, that at a great expense President Castro has been show hat it is 12 times as serious a matte o injure Germany as to injure England and that the British foreign office has been the laughing stock of the world.

WRECK AT ESMOND.

The Richey Jury Places Responsibility on Operator Clough.

Tucson, Ariz., Feb. 12 .- The Richey jury, known as "The rump" coroner's jury, brought in its verdict today as to the cause of and responsibility for the Esmond wreck between the east and west bound on the Southern Pacific Jan. 28. The jury places the responsibility on Operator Clough. It condemns the Southern Pacific for failing to place guards around the wreck to prevent the wholesale pilfering of articles from bodies and wreckage. The jury says it would have been possible to identify more bodies had it not been for the ooting of the wreck by souvenir flends. The crews of both trains are exonerated from all blame. Clough's whereabouts s still a mystery.

A letter was read from President Roosevelt, regretting his inability in the present, and another to the like effect from Robert T. Lincoln. The president's letter was

Will you please present to the members of the club my sincere regrets that I cannot be with you at the Lincoln's birthday dinner. I feel that not merely the Republican party, but all believers in the country, should do everything in their power to keep alive the memory of Abraham Lincoln. The problems we have to solve as a nation now are not the same as those he had to face, but they can be solved aright only if we bring to their solution exactly his principles and his methods and his iron resolution, his keen good sense, his broad kindliness, his tactical ability and his lofty idealism. Faithfully yours, "THEODORE ROOSEVELT." Members of the Chicago society of New York tonight gathered at Delmon-ico's, where they celebrated the memory and are now hiding in the city. From evidence Quinn says he has, he declares he will land the robbers before several days have passed. While Sheriff Quinn would not tell as to the evidence in his hands, it is believed he relies on finding the rubber-tired carriage used by the hold-ups in their drive to and from the scene of the hold-up. The tracks of the vehicle could be easily followed this morning until the well traveled highways of the city vere reached. A mask and empty cartridge shells dropped by the robbers are in the hands of the police. The bloodhounds brought from the peni-tentiary this morning proved a failure, and were returned to Deer Lodge to-
